2012 Rate Card

Hourly rate for research work, travel time, analysis, and related activities- $210 an hour

Hourly rate for deposition testimony - $275 an hour

Hourly rate for trial testimony- $300 an hour

My EIN number is printed above. I require a $1,000 retainer for all new matters unless I know the attorney or insurance company retaining me. I require a check one week in advance for all depositions with a minimum pre-payment for three hours at $275 an hour. If an opposing counsel wishes for me to travel to a deposition site they will be responsible for paying for and arranging for transportation (in conjunction with the expert). Travel time (when travel takes over three hour each way or involves significant air travel) is billed at $1,000 a day unless work on the case is undertaken during travel and then the regular hourly rate is applied. All other travel is billed at $100 an hour.

All bills need to be paid within 30 days and are due when presented by GFA. If a bill is over two months outstanding there will be a 5% interest obligation added to the outstanding balance and any future work is billed at $250 an hour.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any question.

Sincerely,

Gil Fried
